Personalized Learning Plans

The reason why PLPs matter:

UNIQUE CHILD
- Interests (both professional and intellectual)
  - Aptitudes
  - Talents
  - Curiosity

UNIQUE SCHOOL & COMMUNITY
- History of community
- History of school
- Resources
- Faculty strengths

MEANINGFUL EDUCATION for INDIVIDUAL & SOCIETY
- Engaged
- Relevant
- Preparatory

PLP team approach
Roles for students, teachers and parents/guardians

1. Take a PERSONAL INVENTORY of interests
2. IDENTIFY GOALS: academic, career & personal
3. PLAN
4. DO!
5. REFLECT on what’s working well, areas for improvement
6. REVISE the plan based on experience

Parents, guardians & teachers help identify & support
Parents, guardians & teachers offer feedback
Parents, guardians & teachers support